P reface

The Constitution of India provides for a representative and parliamentary form of democratic government, making elected representative responsible to the people. It gives the right to the citizens who are 18 years and above to elect their representative periodically.

Since the attainment of Statehood, General Assembly Election to the Nagaland legislative Assembly had been held for the fourteen (14) times in the State. The fourteen General Assembly Election was held in the State on 27-02-2023. The Directorate of Economics and Statistics as the repository of all statistics has been publishing the result of the General Assembly Election of Nagaland after every election results are declared by the Election Commission.

This publication presents a brief analysis of the fourteen Assembly Election results. The publication also contain the result of by-election that are conducted to fill vacancies arising from the untimely demises of some sitting representative.

The detail summary of Lok Sabha election from Nagaland parliamnetray Constituency is also presented in this report. The data are sourced from the Election Commissioner of India, Lok Sabha and Nagaland Legislative Assembly (1964-2024).

It is hope that the information provided in this publication will be of interest to the users, particularly the general public who have been showing their political wisdom through their valuable ballots.

I am grateful to the Election Commisioner for their co-operation in providing all the requisite information for this publication. I also extend my appreciation to the team of dedicated officers and staff associated with this publication.

Any suggestion for improvement on this publication is most welcome.

6. Brief History of Nagaland Legislative Assembly

The State of Nagaland was created on the 1st of December 1963 as the 16th State of India. The first election to the Nagaland Legislative Assembly were held on 10th February 1964 with 73 candidates vying for 40 seats. During the first election to the Nagaland Legislative Assembly, the State had a total of 1,24,231 electorates as compared to 13,16,064 electorates during 14th NLA election 2023. The number of Assembly seats was increased from 40 seats to 60 seats during the 3rd election held in 1974. Since then, the number of Assembly seats has remained at 60.

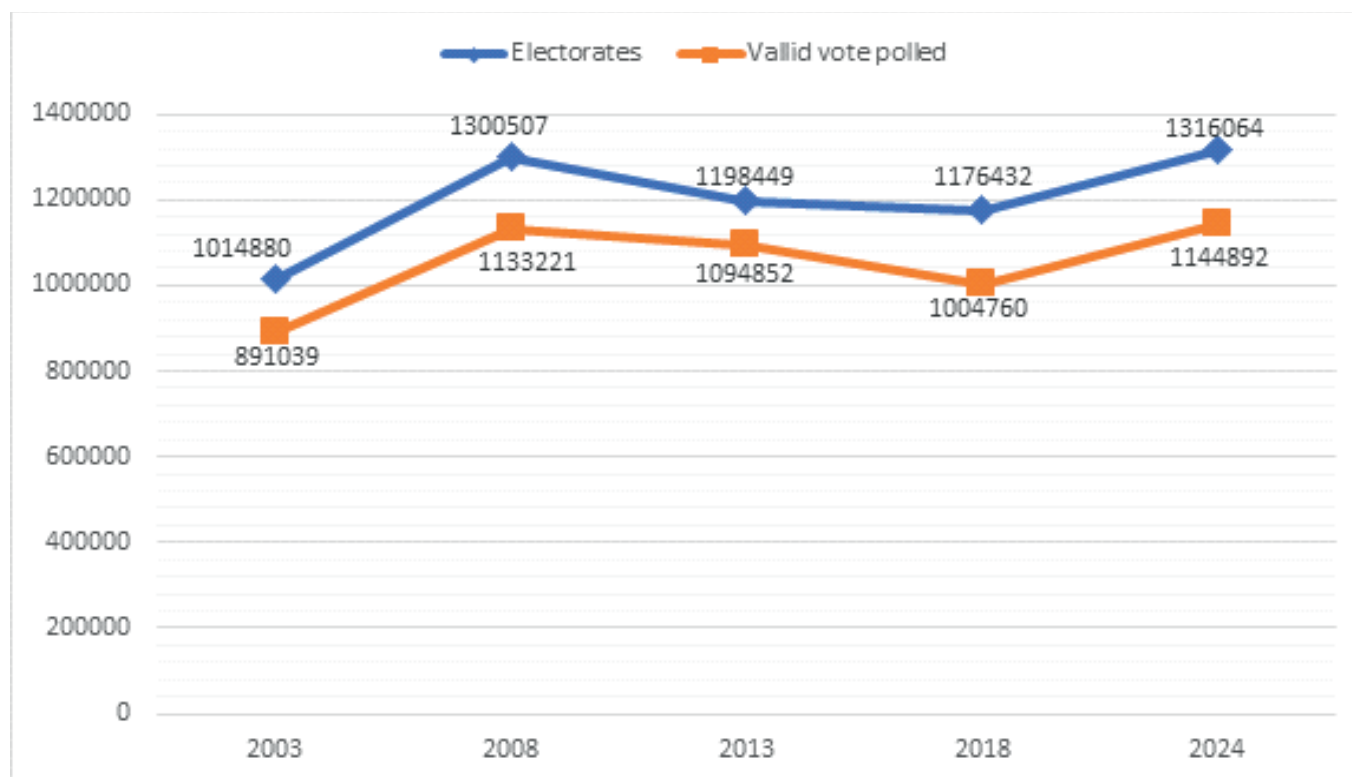

During the 14th election to the Nagaland Legislative Assembly held in 2023, the State had a total of 13,16,064 electorates, an increase of 1,39,632 from previous 13th NLA election. The percentage of vote polled was 85.41 per cent with one candidate getting elected un-opposed.

7. Brief analysis of 14th Nagaland Legislative Assembly Election

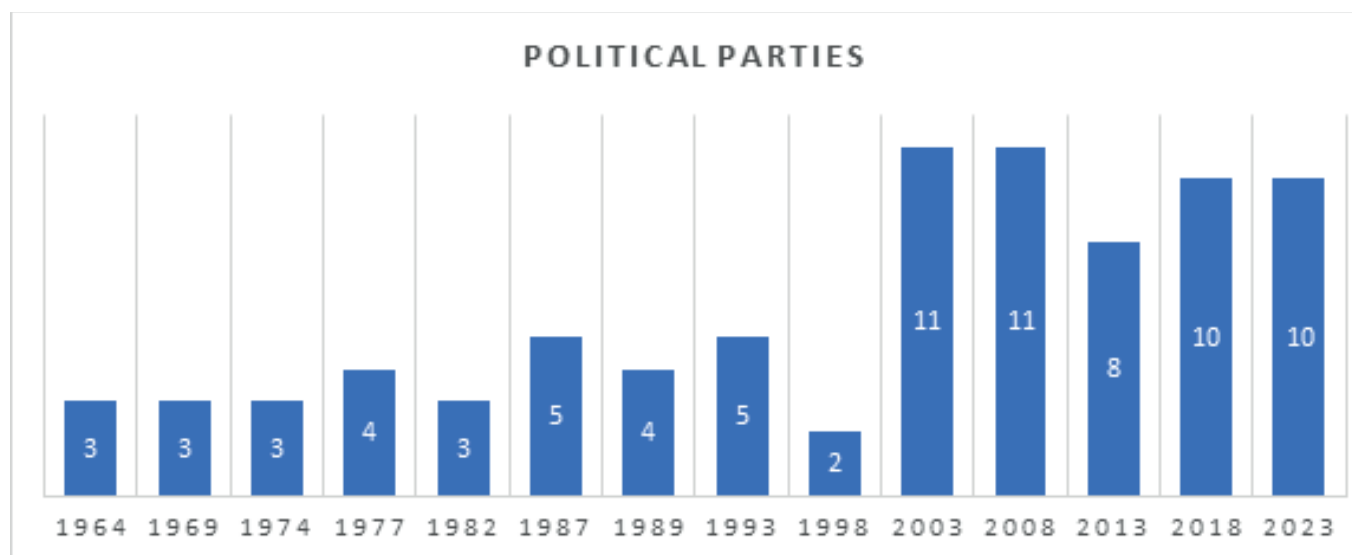

The 14th Nagaland Legislative Assembly election was held on 27th February, 2023 across the State to fill the 60 seats. In total, 186 candidates from 60 constituencies have contested in the 14th NLA Election. The total number of electorates for the 14th NLA election was 1316064 out of which 660812 were males and 655252 were females respectively. The valid vote polled was 1144892. A candidate from 31- Akuluto (ST) constituency won uncontest, having a total electorates of 10725. The Nationalist Democratic Progressive Party won the largest number of seats by winning 25 seats followed by BJP which secured 12 seats. The NDPP-BJP had fought the elections on 40:20 seat sharing arrangement. As per the pre-polled alliance agreement, NDPP and BJP formed a coalition Government on 21st March, 2023.

7.1 Voter turnout during the 14th election to the Nagaland Legislative Assembly

During the 14th Nagaland Legislative Assembly election, the total voter turnout was 11,44,892 as compared to 10,04,760 in 13th NLA election, which shows an increase participation of voters by 13.94 percent. The percentage of voters turn out during 14th NLA election was 87.71 percent. The total number of electorates have also increased over time, as per the electoral roll of 14th NLA election. On percentage basis there was 11.82 percent increased in the electorate during 14th NLA election over the previous election. During 2018 NLA election, the total number of electorates was 11,76,432 while in 2023 NLA election, the total number of electorates have increased to 13,16,064.

7.2 Number of political parties from 1964 to 2023

The number of political parties participating in the election to the NLA have increased over the years. From 2003 to 2023, there is an upward shift in the number of political players for the State Legislative Assembly election. While the era prior to 2003 had an average of 3.5 parties in each election, the number of political parties participation has increase to an average of 5 post 2003.

7.3 Women in Nagaland politics.

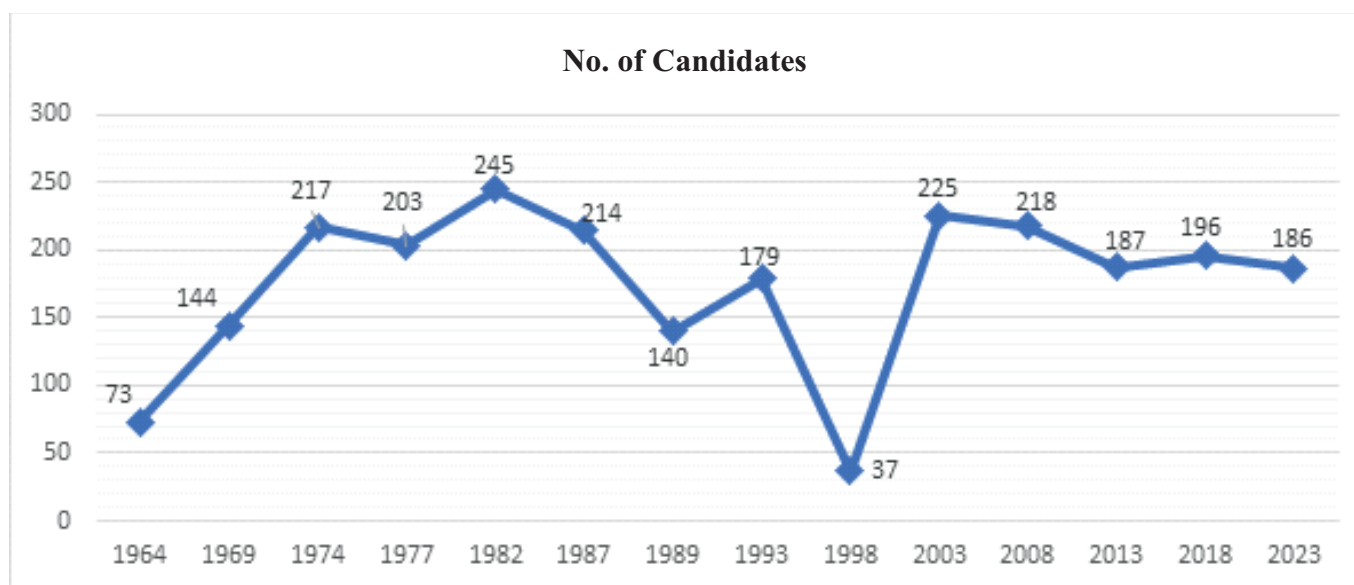

From Smti. Rano Shaiza election to Lower House in 6th Lok Sabha Election, 1977, significant changes in politics has evolved. Women today are being given due respect and space in politics and leadership. Making another significant moment in the history of Nagaland politics, Smti. S Phangnon Konyak was elected as the first Naga woman representative to the Upper House of the parliament in 2022. She was also appointed to the panel of vice chairpersons in the Raja Sabha.

For the first time in the history of Nagaland Legislative Assembly, two women were elected to the 14th Nagaland Legislative Assembly. Smti. Salhoutuonuo Kruse from Western Angami Assembly Constituency and Smti. Hekani Jakhalu from Dimapur III Assembly Constituency, both from Nationalist Democratic Progressive Party (NDPP).

Participation of women in the Nagaland Legislative Assembly election started from 1982 (5th NLA election) and only after 41 years (1982-2023), Naga women were elected to become legislators for the first time.

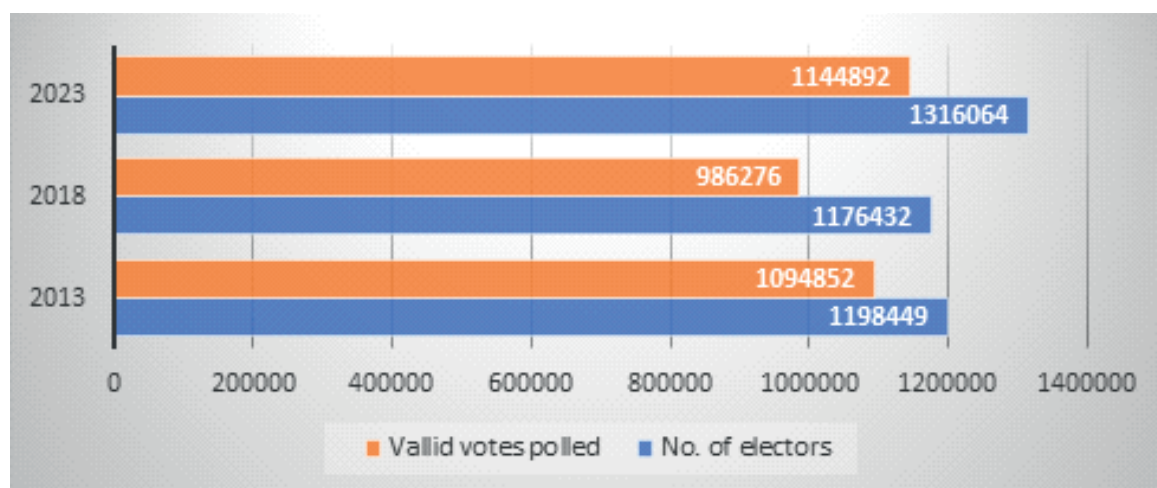

7.4 Number of contesting candidates

7.7 Percentage of party vote share during the 13th and 14th NLA Election

The major political players in the Nagaland Legislative Assembly has shown a significant change in their vote share during 13th and 14th NLA election. The NDPP party has fetched majority vote share in 14th NLA election. The BJP party has also shown a significant rise in vote share. During 2018 election, the party vote share was 13.08 % as compared to 19.72 % in 2023 NLA election. There was a downfall in vote share for NPF, which was once in power. The NPF party vote share in 2018 election was 43%, where as in 2023 election the vote share came down to 3.55%. The LJP (RV) which made its first entry into NLA election in 2023 has gain 8.64% votes share.

7.8 Close contest between the candidates.

Smti. Salhoutuonuo Kruse of NDPP who made her debut in the 14th NLA election had a close margin contest with her opponent Shri Keneizhakho Nakhro who contested as an independent candidate, and won by 7 votes. The former had 7078 votes and the later 7071 votes respectively. In Phek constituency, Shri Kuzholuzo Nienu of NPF won by 48 votes over his opponent Shri Kupota Khesoh. In another close contest, the Suruhuto constituency under Zunheboto district has Shri S. Toiho Yeptho of NCP winning by 60 votes over his opponent Shri H. Khehovi.

7.9 Higher Anti-incumbency and candidates who made maiden victory

During 13th NLA election, the level of anti-incumbency was low across constituencies. However, the 14th NLA election has witnessed a higher level of anti-incumbency. In the 14th NLA election, only 21 MLA from 13th NLA managed to secure their respective seats. In other words, 65% of sitting MLA lost their seat.

The 14th NLA election also saw new candidates winning from their respective constituencies. In total, 22 candidates who contested for the first time won their seat, which is 36.66% winning rate for the new entrants.

By-Election for 43 Tapi (ST) constituency.

1. The bypoll was necessitated by the death of Shri Noke Wangnao (NDPP) in August 2023. The NDPP candidate Wangpang Konyak defeated his congress rival Wanglem Konyak by 5,333 votes.

PARLIMENTARY CONSTITUENCY
NAGALAND LOK SABHA
(1967-2024)

11. Parliamentary Constituency of Nagaland

Nagaland first participation in the Lok Sabha election was in 1967 (4th Lok Sabha). Shri S.C Jamir was the first member elected to the Parliament from Nagaland. He was from Nagaland Nationalist Organisation party and was elected unopposed. Since then, Nagaland has been participating in the Lok Sabha election till date.

The summary details of the parliamentary constituency of Nagaland Lok Sabha elections from 4th Lok Sabha Election 1967 to 18th Lok Sabha Election 2024, are presented to enable election data accessible to the people. The data incorporated in this report are secondary data which are sourced from the Election Commission of India, Lok Sabha and Nagaland Legislative Assembly.

The voters turnout during 18th Lok Sabha election 2024 is comparatively low as shown in the figure 3 in comparison to rising number of electors. This was against the backdrop of ENPO (Eastern Naga Peoples Organisation) decision to abstain from voting in the election owing to Socio-political reasons.

In total, seven political parties and one Independent candidate have represented Nagaland Parliamentary Constituency to the Parliament till date.
